

Decentralization, Federal Systems in Forestry and National Forest Programs Country-led Initiative in Support of UNFF

Switzerland, Interlaken, 2004

1

KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

Kyrgyz Republic is an independent, unitary, democratic state, which is based on the rules of the constitutional and secular state. The population of the Kyrgyz Republic is more than 5 mln. Bishkek is the capital of the Kyrgyz Republic.

The State Forestry Service

KYRGYZ REPUBLIC

Forestlands serve as natural accumulators of moisture.

State Forest Fund

The total SFF area is 3,163,200 ha
(15,9 % of the total country area).

5

Forests of the Kyrgyz Republic are represented
as follows:

spruce forests

6

7

Nuciferous forests

8

Juniper forests

9

Flood-plain forests

10

The protected areas fund of the Kyrgyz Republic is about 933,100 ha

11

The network of protected areas currently operates in the Kyrgyz Republic.

Despite the small territory, the Kyrgyz Republic possesses rich diversity of species (about 1 % of known species of flora and fauna on the 0,13% of surface).

Kyrgyz Swiss Program on Forestry Support

13

Since 1995 Forest Inventory
Service is functioning

14

Nuciferous forests

15

Community forest management

3643 ha was given to the Community forest management

16

Local population are developing jointly principles and methods of the Community forest management

17

Successive steps of the process and their interaction

18

The first lake of the Grigoriev gorge

1950

2003

19

20

THANK YOU!

Switzerland, 2004

21